

Damn Fool

He said, "I can't even love me, the way I wish you would"

The passenger's seat feels cold now, maybe it's shielding guilt

A luminescence born now, I'm out of the firing line

You said that you lost me, but all we lost was time

My downfall's that I'm a damn fool for ya

You didn't come with a blurb; you still light me up

Spellbound, you're the kind of lost that feels like being found

My downfall's that I'm a damn fool

He said, "I didn't even notice, when you walked away"

Your mum said you had inhibitions, but all you felt was shame

Does your dad still read the paper? Sit and watch the news?

You said you had nothing, but baby I had you

My downfall's that I'm a damn fool for ya

You didn't come with a blurb; you still light me up

Spellbound, you're the kind of lost that feels like being found

My downfall's that I'm a damn fool

I don't see in white baby, I only know the colour of blue

Maybe it's been a while but say you've known it too

I don't see in white baby, I only know the colour of blue

Maybe it's been a while, say you've known it too

My downfall's that I'm a damn fool for ya

You didn't come with a blurb; you still fill my cup

Spellbound, you're the kind of lost that feels like being found

My downfall's that I'm a damn fool

My down fall's that I'm a damn fool

(yeah)

My down fall's that I'm a damn fool

My down fall's that I'm a damn fool

My down fall's that I'm a damn fool

My down fall's that I'm a fool
